6) Total # of Interviewees Referred: For the period from March 1, 2009 to July 31 2009 this Employment Unit interviewed 12 interviewees for six full-time job vacancies.

7) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives. List and briefly describe the Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives undertaken during the period covered by this Report.

(a) Initiative: Wilkes Community College—Wilkes Campus—Job Fair

On March 12, 2009, Wilkes Community College held a Job Fair on their main campus. The event was open from 9am-6pm and hundreds of local merchants were there to promote their businesses. Our Sales Manager attended the Job Fair to promote the stations as well as accept general applications. Applications were received for the Programming, Sales, Business and Promotion departments. We had an overwhelming response to our new station and our job recruitment.

(b) Initiative: Internship Program

High Country ADventures offers internships in all departments at its radio stations. The internships undertaken for the period of this report gave one student the opportunity to do news writing and on-air reporting. The intern is an ASU students. Station personnel oversee the interns and evaluate her performance. All interns receive training and exposure to the skills necessary to have a successful career in the broadcast industry.

(c) Initiative: Personnel Training

High Country ADventures provides training to its employees based on the job description of the employee. Account Executives receive sales training and training to become familiar with all aspects of the radio process to facilitate their sales efforts. These ongoing efforts provide employees with the opportunity to develop their skills and in some instances have resulted in promotions to higher-level positions within the company.
